Calling All Local Businesses!

BHS' Friends of Performing Arts (FoPA) invites businesses to purchase an ad in the last performing arts program book to be published this year. Ad rates start at only $50 for a one- third page ad (one insertion).

This is a great opportunity for you to gain wider community visibility for your business while supporting the wealth of artistic offerings at BHS.

Your ad will appear in the program book for the upcoming spring dance production, "Progressions," May 13-15. Recent ad revenue has been used to upgrade the auditorium's sound system, install new risers in the dance studio, and for the purchase of piano stations for the new BHS piano class.

Please contact Herb Hough herbertehoughjr@cs.com or call 617-429-9447.

Special thanks to our advertisers!

Brookline High School and the Friends of Performing Arts extend a special thanks to our business advertisers for their support of the more than 500 students participating in music, dance, drama and stagecraft at BHS.

Students, parents, and audience members are encouraged to patronize the businesses advertising in the program book and to thank them for their generous support of performing arts at Brookline High School.

We invite parents to show their support of students performing in the annual BHS dance production, "Progressions" this May. Parents can place a greeting in the program book for "Progressions," May 13-15 by contacting Herb Hough herbertehoughjr@cs.com. Thank you!
